An Introduction to Iris Synthesis

with Hakim Salim M. Khan, President of the GNI

Iris Synthesis® is the synthesis of naturopathic Iridology and oriental traditions of medicine. Iris Synthesis®; with its wholistic and energetic paradigm enables the practitioner to access classical traditions such as Chinese medicine, Ayurveda, Tibb and Hippocratic medicine.

These traditions are rich in wisdom, knowledge and have extensive experience in maintaining human health and wellbeing as well as being able to provide answers to many 'modern incurable diseases'.

Introduction to Iris Synthesis® will consider:

- A Brief History of Iridology
- Naturopathic Iridology
- The Energetic paradigm of health and disease
- The constitution of the human being
- An Introduction to Iris Anatomy & Topography
- The 4 Iris constitutions
- Iris synthesis in clinical practice
